Lots of Fun at the Fair.

Come on fellows, come a-humpin', Saddle your nage and come a-jumpin'; The big State Fair at Richmond town Is the finest show that can be found. We'll have red lemonade and peanuts hot,
And get chewing gum with a penny-in-the-slot.
We'll ring the canes in the grand stand stalls,
And knock down the babies with big baseballs.

Tell all the boys we're going down

big State Fair

at Richmond town.

There'll be sheep and shoats and cattle so fat. And all the fine horses worth lookin' at:

While the floral hall groans with loads of fruits. We'll saunter around in our new fall suits.
Talk with our girls about ice cream an' honey,
And sweet sugar lumps, while we spend our money

On the merry-go-round or the shoot-the-chute. When the bass drums boom and the big horns toot You'll find us there right on the ground,

big State Fair

at Richmond town.

There'll be trottin', pacin', and runnin' races, And high capers cut in the steeplechases;

There'll be prize quilts hangin' in the floral hall And cornstalks that grew about steen feet tall; While the big yellow pumpkins and potatoes brown, With the large cabbage heads will be lyin' around

On the floor and the tables with apples an' pears-All the finest you've seen in fourteen years O, they'll keep you busy just a-lookin' around.

at Richmond town.

Get up early, so's you won't be late;

We want to be there when they open the gate And stay through it all till they close the show

And stay through it all till they close the show
For its "whole hog or none" wherever we go.
We'll sample the cakes and taste the preserves.
And let 'em all know we're on to the curves
Of their doin's and fixin's like connoisseurs.
So come in hig wagons with you and yours.
Or catch the first train that's goin' down

hig State Fair

at Richmond town.
